Product description

This Porsche Panamera G2/971 21" Turbo Design Wheel is a premium choice for enhancing the aesthetics and performance of your vehicle. Specifically designed for the Porsche Panamera models G2/971 and G3/976, this wheel features a striking Turbo V design that not only looks impressive but also improves the vehicle's handling and stability.

The wheel dimensions are 9.5J x 21 with an offset (ET) of 71, providing a perfect balance between width and diameter for optimal driving dynamics. The dark titanium color (code: OC6) adds a touch of elegance and sophistication, making it a standout addition to your Porsche.

Manufactured as a genuine Porsche original part, with the OEM number 971601025ALOC6, this wheel guarantees compatibility and the highest quality standards. It is new, unused, and undamaged, ensuring that you receive a product in pristine condition.

Suitable for both left and right sides and designed for the front of the vehicle, this wheel is versatile and functional. Whether you're looking to replace a single wheel or upgrade all four, this Turbo Design Felge is an excellent choice for maintaining the luxurious appeal and high performance of your Porsche Panamera.
