Product description

This rear silencer is specially designed for the Porsche Panamera model 971 with a 4.0-litre engine and offers excellent fit and performance. The product is to be installed on the right side of the vehicle and comes without a tailpipe, giving you the flexibility to add a tailpipe configuration of your choice. The OEM numbers for this specific rear silencer are 971253608B and 971253608BY, which confirms the authenticity and quality of the replacement part.

Although used, the rear silencer is in very good condition with only minimal signs of use or storage. As an original Porsche part, it ensures optimal compatibility and performance that meets Porsche's high standards. This replacement part is ideal for Porsche Panamera owners who are looking for a reliable and high-quality product that supports the performance of their vehicle while preserving its originality.
