Product description

This high-quality brake disc is specially designed for the rear axle on the left side of the Porsche 911 model 992 GT3/GT3RS and the Porsche 718 Cayman GT4 model 982. It bears the OEM numbers 9GT615601E and 9GT615601B, confirming its authenticity and compatibility with the models mentioned.

As an original Porsche part, this brake disc guarantees a perfect fit and optimum performance. It is new, unused and undamaged, ensuring a long service life and reliability. Installing this brake disc ensures that your vehicle's braking performance remains at the highest level, which is particularly important for high-performance vehicles such as the GT3, GT3RS and GT4 models.

Using genuine parts such as this brake disc helps to maintain the safety and efficiency of your vehicle and supports the value retention of your Porsche. Ideal for drivers who do not want to compromise on the quality and performance of their braking system.
