Product description

This product is a left rear bumper guide and reinforcement specifically designed for the Porsche Cayenne, model 958, covering the years 2010 to 2014. The part, identified by the OEM number 95850537700, is an essential component for maintaining the structural integrity and alignment of the rear bumper on your Porsche Cayenne.

Manufactured as a genuine Porsche original part, this guide and reinforcement ensures perfect compatibility and performance, matching the exact specifications and quality standards of the vehicle's original equipment. The part is new, unused, undamaged, and comes in its original packaging, ensuring that it delivers not only top performance but also maintains the aesthetic integrity of your vehicle.

The installation of this component is crucial for the proper support and stabilization of the rear bumper, which can be critical in the event of rear-end collisions or to prevent sagging and misalignment over time. Using genuine Porsche parts like this one guarantees that the vehicle retains its value, safety features, and original appearance.

This rear bumper guide and reinforcement is an excellent choice for Porsche Cayenne owners looking to replace or upgrade their vehicle components with parts that offer reliability and durability, straight from the original manufacturer.
