Product description

This exclusive women's leather jacket from the 60Y Porsche 911 collection celebrates the 60th anniversary of the legendary Porsche 911, which has been renowned for its timeless elegance and sporty performance since 1963. The jacket is limited to just 911 pieces worldwide, making it a special collector's item.

The outer material is made from 100% finest goat suede leather, which is valued for its softness and durability. The inside of the jacket features two types of lining: the main lining is made from a blend of 65% cotton and 35% polyester, while the second lining is made from 100% acetate, ensuring a comfortable fit.

The jacket impresses with its modern, slightly cropped cut and a light blouson shape, which is complemented by a knitted insert at the back hem. This design element gives the jacket a stylish touch and ensures an optimal fit. The sleeve hem is adjustable and has concealed press studs, which increases comfort.

High-quality details include concealed pockets with press studs, a zip at the front concealed by a button placket and a knitted insert in the turn-down collar, inspired by the seat covers of the anniversary vehicle. An embossed crest badge on the right sleeve and embroidered Porsche lettering on the back below the collar underline the exclusive character of the jacket.

The black inner lining features a large "60Y 911" print and a story label that tells the history and significance of this special edition. This limited-edition leather jacket is not only a fashion statement, but also a piece of automotive history that will delight fans of the Porsche 911.
